I, _____, agree to act as a volunteer with The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton with the understanding that:

- I shall keep confidential all personal and confidential information of students and teachers which I may access or become aware of in the course of my service;
- I shall not disclose any such information to any individual without authorization from an appropriate classroom teacher, Administrator or Principal of The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton;
- I shall not collect any personal information from individuals without being expressly authorized to do in advance by an appropriate official of The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton;
- Any records created by me in the course of my volunteer service are the property of The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton; and
- I shall relinquish to The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton all control to any such records immediately upon completion of my service or when directed by an official of The Waldorf Independent School of Edmonton to do so.

As a volunteer, you will be expected to Accept and understand the children with whom you come into contact. Strive for acceptance of all children. Some of our children have particular or specific needs which are not evident to others. If you are unsure of how to respond to a particular student, please check with the teacher. We ask that you respect others and honour the diversity of people and their perspectives at all times in your role as a volunteer.

Take note of and become familiar with general school rules and procedures so that you may provide a positive role model to the students. This will also assist you to be more comfortable when dealing with the children.

Report to the teacher or principal when you have a student concern. While volunteers may intervene and redirect students so that they behave in an appropriate and safe manner, please be aware that instructing and disciplining students are the responsibilities of the school staff.
